Fatal Motorcycle Collision Under Investigation

Brea, Calif. – On Sunday, April 13, 2025, at approximately 1:16 a.m., Brea Police officers responded to a traffic collision in the area of Imperial Highway and Puente Avenue involving a motorcycle and an SUV.

Upon arrival, officers discovered that the motorcyclist, a 26-year old male from Los Angeles County, had sustained fatal injuries and was pronounced deceased at the scene. The driver of the SUV was not injured.

Preliminary findings indicate that both vehicles were traveling westbound on Imperial Highway when the motorcycle, reportedly traveling at a high rate of speed, struck the rear of the SUV. The SUV driver remained at the scene and is cooperating fully with the investigation.

The roadway was closed for several hours during the investigation and was reopened by 8:30 a.m.

The incident remains under investigation by the Brea Police Department.

Anyone with information related to this collision is requested to contact the Brea Police Department Traffic Division at (714) 990-7640.

For all press inquiries, please contact Lieutenant Chris Haddad at 714-990-7744 or chaddad@breapolice.gov.
